

MAP and DESCRIPTIONS of LOCALE

Some interesting places to paint within a 7-mile radius

St. Anthony's Church: restored adobe church in historic plaza.

Eagle Rock Lake: local fishing spot in stunning setting along the Red River on Hwy 38.

Climbing Wall: on Hwy 38, sheer rock cliff.

The Red River in Red River Canyon along Hwy 38: various spots, river, wildflowers.

Village of Cerro: on Hwy 378, turn west/left 4m north of Questa for open views and farmland.

Vistas de Questa Trail: look for brown trail sign and turn left, 2.4m north of Questa.

Cabresto Canyon: into greater elevation, for meadows, river, flowers, and mountain views.

Red River Fish Hatchery: 5.5m south of Questa on Hwy 522, turn west/right. Ponds, river trail, rock canyon walls.

Columbine Canyon: 5.2m on hwy 38, on right; with picnic, campgrounds and trail through woods by river.

1ST ANNUAL QUESTA QUICK-DRAW EVENT, SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 2023

At the Art Market/Farmers Market venue by the Questa Visitors Center, just east of Questa's one traffic light, #1 State Hwy 38.

8-9 am artist check-in, painting until 3 pm, return of artwork to event site, with Opening Reception (including judging and sales) from 3:30 to 6 pm.

ELIGIBILITY - Adults, and youth (FREE. 8 yrs to 17 yrs, under age 14 needs adult chaperone.)

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS AND FEES - $15 entry fee, can be paid via PayPal at QuestaCreative.org, Donate button, or by check mailed to QCC, PO Box 1025, Questa, NM.

-Each artist can enter a painting or drawing no larger than 16 X 20". - All painting surfaces must be stamped on the back by event mgr. upon check-in. - All entries must be completed en plein air, between 8 am to 3 pm on June 24, in the Questa vicinity. - Artwork must be framed with wire hangers or be gallery-wrapped canvas with painted sides and wire hangers.

* Participants in the Youth Division will be given an 8 x 10" canvas, acrylic paint set, and brushes (bring water and container, paper towels, plastic plate for mixing). For Youth Division, unframed artwork will be accepted.

An additional painting of a mini-canvas by adult artists will be encouraged as a fundraiser for the event host; the non-profit Questa Creative Council (50% proceeds for the artist!). The first 30 adult registrants will be given a 6 x 8" mini-canvas and frame to complete during the Quick-Draw.

ARTWORK DELIVERY AND SALES - Artists must deliver their work (both large & mini canvases) to the Art Market/Farmers Market event site by 3 pm on Saturday. There is no minimum price for the artwork. - The Questa Creative Council will keep a 30% commission. (The commission on the mini-paintings will be 50%) - Opening Reception and viewing will begin at 3:30 pm, with awards announced at 4 pm. - Reception and sales will run until 6 pm. - Artists can choose to leave their painting(s) for us to sell at the Farmers Market the next day, on Sunday, June 25, 10 am to 2 pm. Artists can arrange to pick up any unsold works. We can mail unsold mini-canvases back to artist if need be.

*The QCC will handle all sales and collect all payments from the customers. Checks will be mailed to artists within three weeks. - Artists will be responsible for paying state sales tax, which should be considered in their pricing.

AGREEMENT OF ENTRY and LIABILITY - Questa Creative Council employees and volunteers, or anyone working on the event will not be held responsible for any loss or damage to artwork. -Your participation constitutes acceptance of all terms and conditions mentioned in this document. -Your sign-in upon registration included release of liability and permission to use your image if taken during event.